YACHT CUP RACE
WILL BRING FAST
WATER CRAFT TO AMERICA TRIALS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
BOSTON, Feb. 12.—Defense of the America's cup against the next foreign challenger has begun, it was announced today. Yachting interests affiliated with the New York Yacht club have gone far to anticipate another international effort to lift the cup.

Two model yachts were the mediums of research tests, the results which will probably be reflected in the next races. The models were matched against each other under all kinds of wind and weather off Provincetown in races that extended through several months.

The models have been shipped to the New York Yacht club for safekeeping and exhibition. They were nine feet long, the masts stood 15 feet high. In length they are approximately one-tenth the size of the Resolute. The models cost $3,000 each. They weighed between 200 and 300 pounds each.

The yachts were made to represent opposing ideas in sloop architecture and were changed from time to time to try out new possibilities of sail plans and ball balance.

The models were so keenly drawn that they sped on reaches fast enough to require the use of a motor boat by those conducting the tests.

Actual operation was simulated to a degree that made it seem that human hands were at the wheels of the yachts. Instead a mechanism controlled by a clock adjustment worked out the movements of tack and jibe, swinging rudder and shifting sail.

The designed, W. S. Burgess, naval architect and builder, who was in charge of the tests.

No Trapshoot By Local Club Today

The regular Sunday trapshoot will not be held this afternoon as previously announced. Members of the Phoenix Gun club will meet at the club traps next Sunday for the regular shoot.

The meeting arranged between the Ray Gun club and the Phoenix Gun club has been postponed indefinitely due to the inability of the visitors to make the trip at this time.

JOE GORMAN BEATS FOWLER
PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12.—Joe Gorman, Portland lightweight, won a ten round decision over Monk Fowler of New Orleans here tonight.

ZBYZKO THROWS LINOW
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 12.—Stanislav Zbyzko won over Ivan Linow in straight falls in a wrestling match here tonight. The heavyweights tussled for 93 minutes before the first fall, but the second required only 14 minutes, Zbyzko using a toe hold.

GRAPPLERS TUSSELE TO DRAW
CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Jack Reynolds of Cedar Rapids, welterweight champion, wrestled an hour draw with Bill Hales of Chicago last night, neither man getting a fall.

Ralph Percout won the first fall in his match with Ben Reuben in 1:39 with a hammerlock.

Johnny Wilson Now Dictates Conditions

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Tentative proposals for a match between Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, and Jack Malone of St. Paul, have been agreed upon, it was said here today, a Minneapolis promoter having laid plans to stage the bout there either March 4 or March 17.

Wilson and his manager declared he would give the former title-holder, Mike O'Dowd, one week to accept terms for a match, and then would accept the Malone contest, postponing a meeting with Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, who issued a formal challenge Thursday night.

JOE MOORE WINS INTERNATIONAL SKATING TITLE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Joe Moore of New York City won the international ice skating championship which ended today, with 100 points. Charles Fewster of Lake Placid, who recently won the national title, was second with 80 and Roy McWhorter of Chicago, third, with 60. The women's international title went to Miss Gladys Robinson of Toronto.

McWhorter set a new world's amateur record in winning the three-mile race in eight minutes and 45 seconds. This was two-fifths of a second faster than the former record made by John Nilsson at Montreal in 1915.

A "miracle" was declared by some skaters just before the three-mile event, but it was called off before the race began. The skaters were dissatisfied with a decision in the senior half-mile race, in which Charles Gorman of St. John, N. B., and William Steinmetz of Chicago were disqualified for fouling. The event was decided by electric light owing to the late hour.

Gorman was fourth on points with 50. William Steinmetz, Chicago; Richard Donovan and Jack St. Louis, both of St. Paul, each had 20 and Al Leitch, Lake Placid, and Russell Wheeler, Montreal, each 10.

Miss Robinson, new international woman champion, wrestled the title from Rosa Johnson of Chicago. She took second place to Miss Johnson in the 220-yard dash and won the three-mile race, giving her 170 points. Miss Johnson had 130. Miss Mildred Truitt of Brooklyn, 30; Miss Edna Webster, Toronto, Ont., 20; and Miss O. Barth of Brooklyn, 10.

The junior championships are: Sixteen year class, Martin Brewster, Lake Placid, 120 points; 14-year class, Harriet Fortune, Lake Placid, 80; 12-year class, Carl Parody, Lake Placid, 90; 10-year class, John A. Shea, Lake Placid, 60.

In the 10-year-old class, Shea defeated Raymond Murray of New York City, who had 40 points.

LEWIS HEADLOCKS ANOTHER

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 12.—"Strangler" Lewis threw Tom Druak, Belgian wrestling champion in 1 hour and 2 seconds here tonight. Lewis used the flying head lock.

INDICTED SOX PLAYERS DENY CONFESSIONS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—Attorneys representing Chicago American league baseball players indicted in connection with the alleged "throwing" of the 1919 world series today opened their fight to exonerate the men by announcing a demand would be made from County Judge Devor Monday for a bill of particulars.

Notification of the contemplated action was accompanied by affidavits from Claude Williams, Joe Jackson and Buck Weaver denying that they had entered into a conspiracy. Jackson and Williams denied that they had confessed to a conspiracy when they testified before the grand jury.

"We expect to fight from the beginning to the end and to take advantage of every legal process and technicality," said Benedict Short, representing the two players. Whether the alleged confessions will be repudiated, ignored or defended cannot be said now.

Announcement of the action brought a statement from Judge McDonald who brought the cases before the grand jury that if Jackson, Williams or Eddie Colette repudiated any part of their grand jury testimony immediate steps would be taken to prosecute them for perjury.

"These men had better proceed very carefully," he said, "for they may jump from the frying pan into the fire."

G. E. Gorman, assistant state's attorney, said the state would "simply sit tight, as its case was complete."

The prayer of the defense petition asks that the state be compelled to furnish the defense with a bill of particulars of the following:

What control and supervision, if any, the White Sox club owners had over the players after the expiration of their contracts, September 23, 1919.

When and where and in what manner William Burns and Hal Chase, former major league, charged with helping engineer the alleged throwing of the series, and Rachel Brown, Sport Sullivan and Abe Attell conspired with the petitioners to destroy the business and reputation of the White Sox club.

What bribe was offered and given, and by whom, and to whom and when, where and how such bribe was offered and given and by whom it was accepted and received.

When, where and in what manner the petitioners did not execute plays with their best skill and ability and in what games and in what plays did the petitioners not play with their best skill and ability.

How games alleged to have been thrown could have been won by the players under indictment.

Claude Williams, before going to the grand jury to testify, issued a sworn statement that he received $10,000 to help throw the series and that he gave Jackson $5,000. He said arrangements were made to throw the series in a conference between himself, Jackson, Weaver, Rieberg, Felsch, Gandil, Cicotte and McMullen and two gamblers named Brown and Sullivan previously to the series. His affidavit today said he did not know whether Brown and Sullivan at this conference were the Brown and Sullivan indicted and that

BIG SHOW STARTS APRIL 13; CHAMPS OPEN WITH LOUIS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—The American league baseball season will open on Wednesday, April 13, and close on Sunday, Oct. 2, according to the official 1921 schedule, released tonight by B. B. Johnson, president of the league. The schedule calls for 154 games, each club playing half this number on the home grounds.

Sunday games at Washington and New York, which were introduced into the league at the end of the season two years ago, and which became a part of the regular schedule last year, again have been scheduled, with the Washington club drawing 11 Sundays and 13 Sabbath games each being awarded to New York, Chicago and St. Louis, while Detroit has been given 12.

All the cities in the league permit baseball on Sunday except Boston and Philadelphia.

In playing the full schedule it will be necessary for each club to make three swings around the circuit.

The season will open with western clubs playing western clubs and the eastern representatives meeting each other.

Opening Games

Opening games are listed as follows:
Chicago at Detroit.
Cleveland at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at New York.
Boston at Washington.

All the clubs which start the season away from home will return to their own yards on April 21 and give the home folks their first opportunity to see their clubs in action.

Chicago, after the opening games at Detroit with the Tigers, will jump down to St. Louis and tackle the Browns in a series, after which the White Sox will come back and meet Ty Cobb's club again. Cleveland—the world's champions—who start the season at St. Louis, move up to Detroit for the second series and then Tris Speaker will take his Indians home to meet the St. Louis Browns in the first game on their home grounds.

In the East "Babe" Ruth and the Yankees will be the first opponents to play at Philadelphia after the Athletics have finished their series at New York and Washington; Boston fans will get their first glimpse of the Red Sox in action when the Washington Senators come to the Hub city to raise the curtain April 21.

The eastern clubs will be the first to hit the trail for the far end of the circuit. The invasion of the West will open on May 10, when Boston will be at Chicago; Philadelphia at St. Louis; New York at Detroit, and Washington at Cleveland. The West goes east June 2, with Chicago at Washington, Detroit at Philadelphia, St. Louis at New York and Cleveland at Boston.

Chicago, Detroit, Washington and New York have been awarded 13 Saturdays each, while the other four clubs—Cleveland, St. Louis, Philadelphia and Boston—have been given a dozen each.

Double headers will be played in all the cities on holidays. Independence day—July 4—Chicago will play at Cleveland, Detroit will be at St. Louis.

New York Comish Rules Protector For Mouth Taboo

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The New York state boxing commission yesterday ruled as illegal the use of rubber mouth-piece protectors, such as worn by "Kid" Lewis in his bout at Madison Square Garden last Monday with Jack Britton, world's welterweight champion.

The ruling was announced after a hearing before a sub-committee, at which Britton, charged with misconduct in the ring, admitted that he went to his opponent's corner just after the second round ended and struck Zelig Goodman, one of Lewis' seconds, during an argument over the use of the protector. Decision in his case was reserved for consideration of the entire boxing commission and license committee.

Britton, who apologized to the committee for his conduct, had a championship title at stake, he felt justified in going to his opponent's corner to demand that Lewis refrain from using the protector.

NEW BALL CLUB ORGANIZED FOR COMING SEASON

Baseball time brings new stars to the big leagues, new teams for the big show and new teams for the valley. The latest aggregation of future stars to blossom in the Salt River valley brings a promising array of young stars under the guiding hands of Sam Haldiman and Bob Bagley, two local men who have been tossing the horseshoe around Phoenix for several years. The new club will hold its first workout at Eastlake Park at 9:30 this morning.

The new organization, which will be known as the Phoenix team, or Senators, will be composed of well known Phoenix players. In the list will be Heavy Westfall, the leading batter of Arizona; Dick Hefflin, husky little twirler from the University of Arizona; Brown, pitcher for the 158th infantry; Scott brothers, both minor league players; Sorey, former Texas leaguer; Lyall, one of the best players who ever wore a Phoenix uniform; Finley Westfall, the fleetfooted outfielder who starred in the valley league last year; Bob Bagley, known to every valley fan for the last 10 years; Lee Moore, a fast infielder from Phoenix; and Teaney, another hard hitting outfielder.

The club is a mutual organization, owned and managed jointly by the players. They promise some real baseball in the valley this year if the fans will boost the game and pull for the home town club. The opening game of the season will be announced in a few days.

Clubs or players desiring to get in touch with the Senators are requested to address all information to Sam Haldiman, in care of the postoffice, Phoenix, Ariz.
